

PRESS RELEASE

Corfu Palace: Bridging the Past and Future – A New Chapter for Corfu’s Iconic Hotel

Corfu Palace Begins a Full Renovation and Will Remain Closed during 2025 season.

Athens, February 6, 2025 – The historic Corfu Palace Hotel, one of Corfu’s most iconic and renowned establishments, announces the commencement of a full-scale renovation of its facilities. The hotel will remain closed during the 2025 season and is expected to reopen in 2026. This renovation aims to upgrade its infrastructure and services while preserving the hotel’s historical essence and traditional character.

Since opening its doors in 1962, Corfu Palace has been closely linked to Greek hospitality and the island’s history, having hosted numerous celebrities and distinguished guests from around the world. The hotel’s legacy, embodying timeless elegance and the luxury of a bygone era, is an integral part of its identity and the unique experience it offers to its visitors.

The renovation project is designed to maintain the defining characteristics that have established Corfu Palace as a landmark while incorporating modern elements and services that cater to today’s needs. The goal is to provide an even higher-quality stay for its guests. The renovation plan includes upgrades to all rooms and common areas, as well as enhancements to hotel services, with the vision of creating a modern tourism destination.

The new design will blend Corfu Palace’s classic elegance with contemporary standards, offering guests a unique hospitality experience that respects tradition while embracing a modern and refreshed approach.

The Corfu Palace management appreciates the understanding of its guests and partners regarding the temporary closure and assures them that its reopening in 2026 will mark the beginning of a new era. The hotel will deliver a renewed and exceptional accommodation experience while ensuring that visitors continue to enjoy the unique atmosphere and hospitality that have made it a world-renowned destination.

By combining classic charm and tradition with innovation, the new Corfu Palace will remain the ultimate destination for those seeking luxury accommodation, personalized services, and unforgettable experiences in the heart of Corfu.